MIXTURA PARA TERCIANAS DE JAYNE,
A CERTAIN AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, &c.

This class of diseases, so common in all parts of the world, and specially prevalent in malarial districts and vicinage of water courses are almost invariably accompanied by more or less derangement of the liver, and frequently by a defective action of the digestive organs.

The mere breaking of the Chill is but a step towards completing a radical cure. The various organs of the body, especially the stomach and liver, must be brought to a healthy and vigorous condition before a permanent cure can be established, and this fact has been specially kept in view by Dr. Jayne in his treatment of these complaints. The use of Jayne's Ague Mixture in conjunction with the Sanative Pills, as prescribed in the directions which accompany each bottle, will not only

Break up the Chills,

But restore the system more particularly the liver and stomach, to a sound condition, and so prevent a relapse of Fever and Ague, by thoroughly

Eradicating the Disease,

And the best evidence of this is the invariable success which has always followed the administration of these remedies, as attested by the certificates published annually in Dr. Jayne's Almanac, and the wide-spread popularity of the Ague Mixture in those districts of the United States, where the diseases, for which it is adapted, most prevail.

All Dr. D. Jayne's Family Medicines are prepared only at 242 Chestnut-street, Philadelphia, and are sold by Druggists everywhere.

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband the small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE TRUE THEORY OF PURGATION,
Applied to the Liver, Kidneys, Skin, Stomach, and Bowels.

DR. RADWAY'S
Perfect
PURGATIVE PILLS,
Perfectly tasteless—Elegantly Coated.

Materia Medica contains, in its repertoire, many purgatives and cathartic agents that, for ordinary purposes, opens the bowels, and through what is called a "peristaltic" movement, purges from the alimentary canal the faeces, and this is all. Such agents, for the purpose of ... or removal of any settled cure, are perfectly useless.

Dr. Radway has compounded one of the most essential discoveries in medical chemistry—in the combination of vegetable substance, for the purpose of a Purgative, Aperient, Counter-irritant, Alterative and ... can be taken or administered with the absolute certainty of securing thorough expulsion of all decayed and decomposing elements of the human body, and as safe to take in the most malignant of Eruptive Fevers. As a proof of this—You are seized with a Bilious attack. Doctor prescribes blue pills or calomel. Next, comes drastic aloetic pill or powders, to work off the effects of the blue pills ... you, and a tonic is next given, to a gentle aperient, whereas one dose of Radway's Pills will do all the work that the three or more prescriptions are given for, without running any risk from mercurializing or salivating the system.

Radway's Pills.

In Radway's Pills the true principle of purgation is secured—not alone to the office of discharging the faeces and excrements from the bowels, but these humors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Skin; Kidneys, Lungs, and all excreting and secreting ... for in these excrementations secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, are interrupted in their escape, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the living body through their proper channels; hence the purgative qualities of Radway's Pills extend to the secretions of the Skin, Kidneys, Liver, &c., whereas not one of the advertised Pills Cathartics go beyond the bowels.

Bear in Mind,

Radway's Pills are the only purgative that will secure an aperitive, diuretic, sudorific, aperient and tonic influence.

They are the only vegetable substitutes for Calomel or Mercury.

They promote the Secretion of bile, and withdraw it from the Circulation.

They assist, through ... the chyme and chyle, and gastric juices in the process of digestion.

SATURDAY EVE., JAN. 6, 1872.

THE BOYNE'S MAIL.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The [illegible] Mail Steamship Company's screw steamship Boyne, Captain [illegible], arrived in this port early this morning. We have to thank the [illegible] captain [illegible] our files, [illegible] at day break [illegible] Mr. J. L. Moore, the purser of the Boyne, whom we are happy to welcome on his return to the Plate. Mr. Moore is well and favourably known to the River Plate travelling public, and his friends will be delighted to find him at his old post on the new ship, the magnificent Boyne.

The Boyne has made a splendid run out of 26½ days, including more than two days stoppage at Rio de Janeiro.

The R. M. S. Douro, with mails of the 14th November from Buenos Ayres, arrived at Lisbon early on the morning of the 11th December; all well: and R.M.S. Neva, with December mails at Bahia, on 27th December: all well.

The steamships Ptolemy and Nile, for Buenos Ayres, were both at St. Vincent on 19th December. On 2nd January, lat. 27.15 S., long 46 d. W., spoke the English barque Lake Bruce from Liverpool for Buenos Ayres. Neither the outward or homeward Pacific company's steamers had arrived at Rio when the Boyne sailed.

We have telegrams via Lisbon to the 12th December from London, and regret to say that the Prince of Wales is almost despaired of: the latest bulletin says:—

"The Prince of Wales passed the night (11th) in great agitation: grave symptoms have again appeared."

Public attention is divided in England between anxiety for the condition of the Prince, and the Home Rule agitation in Ireland, which is now spreading to Scotland. The prospectus has been published of a Transatlantic Cable from Portugal to Cape San Roque, Brazil, with a capital of 1½ millions stg. On December 5th Count Beust arrived in London, to succeed Count Apponyi as Austrian Embassador.

Berlin letters state that Russia is actively [illegible] to establish [illegible] on the Baltic, [illegible] Gulf of Finland, [illegible] Black Sea [illegible] of Constantinople [illegible] arsenal of Toulon [illegible] Meantime the [illegible] friendly [illegible] intentions.

The [illegible] in the Provincial Assembly at Versailles, [illegible] controversy expected to [illegible] of the present Form of government for France, and the return of the Assembly to Paris. He avoided [illegible] any allusion to these matters, and dwelt chiefly on the electric progress of the country towards reorganization and repairing the national losses. The relations with Prussia are satisfactory, the policy of France being peace and self-respect. With Italy and Spain there is also friendship, and filibuster parties in the Pyrenees are not tolerated. The independence of the Pope is to be maintained at all hazards. Good wishes are likewise entertained towards Austria and Russia. The message adds that the commercial treaty with England is most prejudicial to France, and must be reformed in February, 1872. The army is in good condition, so are the finances. The taxes are collected without difficulty. The budget amounts to 2,742 millions francs (110 millions stg.), shewing a reduction of 128 millions in the expenditure, and 628 millions in the national debt.

M. Thiers goes on to say that the Bank of France is authorised to increase its emission. The reorganisation of the army is on the Prussian system, compulsory service, the peace footing being put down at 800,000 men, of whom 150,000 are to serve five years; infantry, 300,000, with 1,200 pieces of cannon. He winds up by saying that France only desires peace, order, and reconstruction, and her neighbours wish the same for her. The message was well received. Mr. Grevy was elected President of the Assembly by 511 votes out of 521. On December 8th two projects were brought in for restoring the estates of the Orleans family, and taking back the Assembly to Paris. Next day a project for raising the paper currency from 2,400 to 3,000 millions. Another, signed by 50 Deputies, for an amnesty, was thrown out. The Orleans Princes have not yet taken their seats in the Assembly. The French Troops, having acquitted [illegible] Mexico, [illegible] under [illegible] evacuating [illegible] stages, the German authorities have declared six departments in state of siege.

The Reichstag closed, after voting army supplies on a peace footing for three years, the same as after the Sadowa campaign. Some Deputies protested against this, saying that before three years France would be recuperated, and anxious for a revanche. Others felt anxiety about the increasing armaments of Russia. The Emperor afterwards opened the Prussian Chambers, his message turning on domestic matters. The King of Saxony also opened his Reichstag, speaking of the new German Empire, and pro[illegible]

[illegible] Queen's bulletin had announced that the symptoms were very [illegible] and the bulletin of Thursday stated that, "the decline [illegible] continues regularly." [illegible] passed quietly; but no [illegible] could be announced [illegible] ing, and in the night the [illegible] with such violence as [illegible] yesterday morning's bulletin issued up to that date, [illegible] and the other symptoms [illegible] occurred. As the day [illegible] there was no abatement, [illegible] the first time the physicians [illegible] the absence of that special [illegible] hope which encouraged us [illegible]. We were then assured, day [illegible] that though the fever pro[illegible] the strength of the [illegible] sustained good. This is, in [illegible] the one essential to recovery [illegible] attack of fever. The issue [illegible] struggle between the strength [illegible] patient and the force of the poison which is working on the system. [illegible] most alarming, therefore, to hear that the exacerbation of the symptoms which began late on Thursday evening has been attended by a great prostration of the strength,' and that, in spite of an interval of sleep, this prostration continued at night. We [illegible], however, see better ground for hope, than as it may be, in the bulletin dated at one o'clock this morning, which assures us that the Prince was, at all events, no worse. We may trust, severe as is the crisis through which he is passing, and unequal as his strength may seem, he has still reserve [illegible] of vital energy to sustain the struggle. The account we published yesterday of Lord Chesterfield's illness [illegible] to increase the general anxiety, for it appears that he, too, seemed progressing satisfactorily, when a sudden collapse set in and defied all the skill of his physicians. But it is to be remembered that relapses of this kind are characteristic of typhoid fever, and do not necessarily bear all the significance of relapses in more regular complaints.—Times, Dec. 9th.

The European and South American Telegraph Company, with a capital of £1,250,000, has just been launched for establishing intermarine communication between Europe, the W. Indies, and Brazil.

The fourth monthly meeting of the shareholders in the Brazilian Collieries Company was held on the 1st December, when it was stated that a number of colliers and workmen had been sent out, and in order that the operations in Brazil might proceed in the most satisfactory manner, the directors had purchased the additional plant and machinery, which would be shipped as soon as possible.

In connection with the Central Argentine Railway, a contemporary remarks:—

"Will the authorities of the Argentine Republic commit an act so ruinous and so completely suicidal as to abrogate their guarantee of this line? The bill for the suspension of this guarantee may have passed the Senate—a most ill-advised measure—but it can surely never become an Act. We (Herapath's Journal) say this in the strong belief that a measure so unjust—indeed, so monstrous—cannot become law. At the same time we admit that the resolutions passed at the recent special meeting of the company are quite right and proper under the circumstances."

The sum of 10,000 sovereigns was withdrawn from the Bank of England the other day for South America, and a further sum of £137,000 on the 8th of December.

Baron A. von Finck leaves for B. Ayres by the outgoing royal mail steamer Boyne, from Southampton, December 9. The Boyne takes out a full cargo of general merchandise and a large amount in specie.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The grievous import of the bulletins respecting the Prince of Wales will fill the country with dismay. There are, indeed, in all diseases possibilities of recovery beyond human foresight, and we cannot surrender the hope that so terrible a calamity as the Prince's death may even yet be averted. But it is of no avail to disguise the truth, and the medical manner bears [illegible] too plainly that the Prince lies in a condition of the most imminent danger. When the physicians speak plainly of his continuing 'in a precarious state,' and in a critical condition,' we may be sure they see cause for the most intense anxiety. The Queen left Windsor as soon as possible after receiving yesterday morning's telegram, and the other members of the Royal Family have been summoned to the Prince's bedside. The period in the course of the fever at which this sudden relapse has occurred evidently aggravates its significance. It is now the fourth week of the attack, and in propitious cases we ought to be witnessing a steady alleviation in the symptoms. Until yesterday there seemed some hope that the disease was taking this favorable [illegible] and nieces, the children of his sisters Eliza, Ann, and Hannah.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The magnificent steamer Boyne arrives to-day at two o'clock: the mails came up in the Republica, and were landed at daybreak, in charge of the mail agent. The public is indebted to the attention of Messrs. C. H. Bean and Co., Royal Mail Agents, for the very early delivery of the letters.

Advices reached town this morning that some two more of the Taindil assassins were overtaken by the neighbours and shot down then and there. As in the pursuing party there are some Englishmen, we wish if possible to call their attention to the fact, that shooting these fellows down at once is a mistake. In order to have a greater moral effect, the assassins, when caught, should be tied down, and then the formality of a trial gone through, the commander acting as judge, and a jury empanelled out of the ranks of the pursuers. Sentence should be passed, and instead of shooting these villians, they should be hung in the open camp where the arrest, trial, and condemnation takes place. This will have a better effect, and strike terror amongst the "gauchos malos" in the South.

Letters from San Nicolas received this morning state as follows:—"We have had a great deal of rain here—14 inches in 38 hours—and it was not too soon, as cattle, sharp, etc. were dying about here wholesale, and the camp was as bare as a sheet of paper. The harvest here is damaged a good bit: however, corn sprouted. They are now putting up the bridge over the Arroyo Las Hermanas, but have been put back by the weather. The mole at San Nicolas is a disgrace. It was worked at for six months, and now remains in statu quo.' The cause of this is a hitch about paying the laborers."

At the meeting recently held in London by the Central Argentine Railway shareholders, the report of which came out per Boyne, Mr. Graham Gilmour, who represented the Argentine Government, said: "As representing the Argentine Government, and as a shareholder, he defended the Government whose credit stood higher in London than that of any other Republic. (A voice,—It did.) They would damage rather than improve their property if they abused the Argentine Government, who had taken no steps whatever in this matter. The bill in question was proposed in the Senate in Buenos Ayres, but had not passed into law; and as a shareholder he felt quite sure that the Argentine Government would fulfil all their obligations, and that they would hear no more of this threat, if it was a threat. Let them, instead of passing a condemnatory resolution, frame a respectful letter to the Government, hoping they would withdraw any idea of discontinuing the guarantee, and go on in the same amicable way as they had done hitherto."

THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY COMPANY.

A special general meeting of shareholders in this Company was held on November 30th, Mr. J. Hagan in the [illegible]

[illegible] G. Woolcott, the secretary, [illegible] the notice convening the meeting [illegible] the purpose of considering a [illegible] passed by one of the Houses of [illegible] Congress of the Argentine Republic, which, if finally adopted, would [illegible] materially affect the interests [illegible] Company.

[illegible] Chairman stated that he need [illegible] occupy their time at any length: [illegible] was related to the suspension [illegible] the Argentine Government 7 per [illegible] guarantee, which had given to [illegible] a line of great and general [illegible] and especially the shareholders in [illegible] Company, who had been accustomed to look upon the good faith of [illegible] Argentine Government as unquestioned. The object of the Bill which [illegible] the Senate was to suspend the [illegible] guarantee until certain things were done by the Company: one of the things insisted that the offices of the Company should be removed to B. Ayres, and another that the stations [illegible] line were yet unfinished, and [illegible] should be completed. Both of these objections could be easily answered. The senator who urged these objections would find a reply in the statutes. He did not seem to know that a decree of the Government had settled the matter of domicile about seven years ago. It stipulated that a resident director should represent the Company at Buenos Ayres, and that an office of the Company should be established there for the registration of shares in the Company and other matters, which had been long since duly complied with. He moved a formal resolution to the effect that the meeting had heard with regret that a measure to abrogate the guarantee of 7 per cent. granted to the Company had been adopted by the Senate, and the meeting protested against the injustice of such a course being carried out.

Mr. Brockett, deputy chairman, seconded the resolution.

A long discussion ensued, in which Mr. Jones, Mr. Gestenburg, Mr. Gillmour, and Mr. S. Herapath took part.

The resolution was carried all but unanimously, Mr. G. Gilmour protesting that it was quite unnecessary.

Dr. Scrivener moved a resolution, authorising the directors to adopt such proceedings as they might consider desirable to protect the interests of the Company.

Mr. S. Herapath seconded the resolution, which was carried; and a vote of thanks to the Chairman and Directors concluded the proceedings.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS.

The will of Mr. Thomas Duguid, jun., a member of the firm of Thomas Duguid and Co., merchants, 17 Change-alley, Cornhill, late of Westfield, Reigate, who died on the 26th of September last, aged forty, was proved in London, on the 16th ult., under £60,000 personalty, by Mr. Alexander Scrimgeour, of London and Highgate, and Mr. John Shedden Scrimgeour, of London and Chislehurst, the acting executors; power being reserved for his relict to prove hereafter. The will is dated July 27 last. He has bequeathed to his nephew, Thomas Duguid, £5,000; to his wife he leaves an immediate legacy of £1,000, his furniture, his estate at Westfield, and a life interest in the rest of his property; and after her decease the same is to be equally divided among all his nephews

[illegible] active. Our stock rapidly increased in the interval, so that consols, of which we hold a stock of 70,000, have assumed a lowering tendency, and can now be had at a decline of 2 f. from the quotations given early last month. Heavy sailed ox have fallen in the same proportion; light and extra heavy kinds thus far held their ground, but for dry hides the advance paid early last month has been almost lost. The leather trade continues satisfactory.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 9.

MONEY MARKET AND DISCOUNT.—On November 30 the Directors of the Bank of England, at their usual weekly meeting, again reduced the rate of discount to 3½ per cent., at which it will stand until further notice. The very unfavorable nature of the last bulletin with respect to the health of the Prince of Wales, together with the unsatisfactory account of affairs in Paris, has caused a dull tone to pervade the Stock and Share Markets, and the tendency is decidedly strong in the silver direction. In foreign bonds French Securities are more especially weak. The Message of M. Thiers being considered most disconcerting, an influential sale important sales of stock. Italians are with rather a firm appearance, but since on the prevailing weakness, have declined. Spanish and Turkish have also dropped. The Government Funds are flat in tone, and Consols have fractionally declined. English Railway Shares are dull, more especially Midland, Great Western, and London and North Western. American Securities are not in the least active, but the receipt of firm prices from New York has had the effect of supporting quotations. Miscellaneous Shares are quiet but firm. Joint-stock Bank Shares show little or no change. Colonial Government Securities are without material alteration.

The demand for discount at the Bank is of a limited nature. In Lombard Street and Cornhill there has been no enquiry worthy of special importance. The rate is 2½ to 3 per cent. Consols close at 91¾ to 91⅞ for prompt, and 91⅞ to 92 for account January 4. French National Defence Loan quoted at 87½ to 87¾.

MERCANTILE FAILURES.—A meeting of the creditors of Messrs. Agop Melikian and Co., merchants, trading to Constantinople, was held on November 29th. The liabilities of the firm are about £15,000 in Manchester, and £15,000 in Constantinople. The suspension of Messrs. Leeger and Co., of New York, one of the largest houses dealing in the cloths and petroleum connected with London and Europe, is announced.

Within the last few days a singularly daring attempt to rig the stock and share markets has been made by means of a forged telegram announcing the amalgamation of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway with a neighbouring powerful company. For a few hours the rascality was successful, but the Committee of the Stock Exchange are instituting a rigid inquiry, with the view of detecting the perpetrators of this serious hoax. In connexion with this painful business several communications have appeared in the money articles of our daily contemporaries, from one of which we extract the following:

"Manchester has sold again on Sheffields today. London and everywhere else has bought. It does not follow that the Manchester sellers have been aware of the forgery; but it is not unlikely that they were better posted up than people at a distance from the offices of the company, and I do not see why they should be allowed to derive any benefit from such a crisis."

COMMERCIAL.

The commercial advices per Boyne are important. We extract the following:—

Messrs. C. D. Marietta have, on behalf of the Argentine Government, invited tenders for the construction of a railway nearly 300 miles long, on the narrow gauge principle, from Cordoba, the terminus of the Central Argentine Railway, to the city of Tucuman, such tenders to be sent in by the 30th day of March, 1872. It is rather a novel mode of transacting this kind of business, as, in order to have an accurate estimate, the contractors ought to be able to make surveys and plans, a costly undertaking in a new country but little known and at such a distance.

Two large Belgian banks have just been introduced—one in Brussels and one in Antwerp. These have a capital of about £2,000,000 each.

NEW STEAMSHIPS.—We understand that the Pacific Steam Navigation Company have contracted for the immediate construction of five additional steamships to be added to their already magnificent fleet. Three of these are to be screws of 3,500 tons each, of great speed, for the service of the Liverpool and Valparaiso Line, and two paddle-wheel vessels of 1,500 tons each, for employment on the coast.

The cold weather is so intense in England that business in the ship yards is stopped.

Two hundred telegraph clerks in England struck for higher salaries on the 8th December, which caused immense inconvenience.

ANTWERP MARKETS.—River Plate wool.—Arrivals in November, 5,811 bales; deliveries, 19,532 bales. The total sales last month embraced 19,290 bales, of which 1,352 bales were realised by private contract, and 17,938 bales in the public auctions. Since then the demand ruled quiet; but within the last few days there is more inquiry for Montevideo and Entre Rios wools, and late auction rates are very firmly maintained for all descriptions.

River Plate Sheepskins.—Arrivals in November, 516 bales; deliveries, 652 bales; stock, 530 bales. Prices were well supported, with a moderate business by private, whereas at a public auction of 496 bales, held on November 30, 111 bales obtained only last quotations, and in some instances even a slight advance.

SAMUEL BOOTE'S

Photographic Warehouse.

86—CALLE PIEDAD—86

Will be OPENED about the 10th JANUARY.

This Establishment is meant to supply a want long felt by Photographers in this country, viz., a place where they could get all their requisites of the Best Quality and at Moderate Prices. Hitherto they have had either to send to Europe for what they wanted at great expense and delay, through not being in the trade, besides having to get a far larger quantity at once than they needed or else they had to content themselves with what they could get here at some of the houses that occasionally got out a few sundries, but of inferior quality and at exorbitant prices.

THE NEW ESTABLISHMENT
(Dedicated exclusively to Photographic Goods)
Will be conducted on the most liberal principles, and altogether in the English style. The stock, which has been selected personally by the Proprietor in Europe, will always be kept up to the standard, both as to quality and variety, thus ensuring to Customers a ready supply of whatever they may want, and at prices that will contrast favourably with those they have hitherto paid.

The supplying Complete Sets of Apparatus, at Low Prices, to Amateurs and Itinerant Photographers will be made a special branch; and Parties in the Country, or elsewhere, who have a little spare time, will find this a most instructive as well as remunerative amusement, at a very small outlay.

An early visit to the Warehouse is respectfully solicited, as the Stock is too extensive to give any details here.
